

Beijing Urban Area & Satellite Town Transportation Model Development - Technical Assistance

MVA in China

In Jan. 2005, the State Council approved the "Beijing urban master plan (2004-2020)" proposed by the Beijing Municipality Government. To implement this master plan, Beijing planning committee & Beijing Municipal Institute of City Planning & Design (BMICPD) are developing detailed planning for Beijing urban area and the satellite towns.

In order to facilitate this planning work, a comprehensive transport forecasting model has to be developed. BMICPD therefore commissioned MVA to provide technical assistance on model development.

The main task for MVA is to supervise and guide BMICPD to develop the transport and put into application for scheme evaluation.

The tasks including:

- ▶ Planning data assumption
- ▶ Survey and data collection
- ▶ Network development
- ▶ Transport model development
- ▶ Evaluation
